Linda Hidalgo reminds us that the Weatherford Veterans Day Parade is November 12th. We need to support our veterans. Linda has painted the Statue of Liberty that will be on the Parker County Republican Women float. The painting is 8 ft tall, and she reports it was quite a lot of fun to paint. They will also be in the Christmas Day Parade. So please, come out and show support.

Michelle Crider's sculpture "Grace Notes" was accepted into the regional TX/Oklahoma Show of the National Sculpture Assn. based in NYC. (This Won 2nd place at WAA Peach Fest 2018 show). Show will run 12-2-22 thru 1-28-23 at the FWCAC.

Carolyn Bernard Young has been offered a one-woman show at the Red Earth Gallery in Oklahoma City! Dates to come.

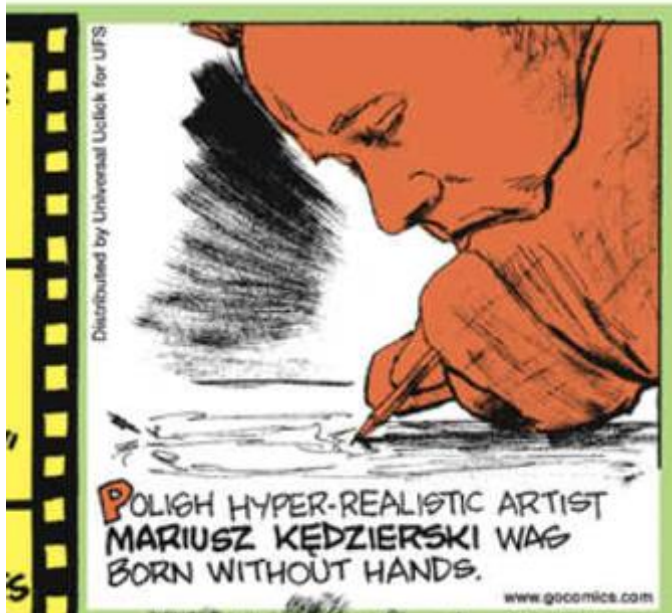

"At the September Monday meeting of the Weatherford Art Association, we listened to Choctaw artist, Carolyn Bernard Young discuss her evolving artwork. Two things stuck me as foremost in this discussion; first, her commitment to honoring the history and traditions of the Choctaw nation in her work and second, how her artwork is evolving because of physical limitations in her hands from thrown ceramics and the Sgraffito technique of decoration, to slab and pieced constructions, to her lovely shield paintings. I think it serves to remind us that if you are born to do art... you do art. As gracious as she is inspiring... you can find out more about Weatherford artist at www.CarolynYoungCeramics.com" (this website address takes you to my current website: www.carolynbernardyoung.com)

Thanks to Debra Standberg for this wonderful article.

Believe It or Not!

Thanks, Jerry Shidal, for all the funnies and good to know items for our newsletter.

Many consider Frank Reaugh's oils and pastels some of the most poetic depictions of Western landscapes ever produced. This is his story!

Chandor Gardens Foundation Inc. is pleased to present a screening of the feature-length (52 minutes) documentary film Frank Reaugh: Pastel Poet of the Texas Plains, on November 19, 2022, at 7:00 pm in the Great Room at Chandor Gardens, Weatherford, TX, has well as having the film's producer Marla Fields on hand to provide remarks and a Q&A session following the screening.

Artist Frank Reaugh (pronounced "Ray") lived and worked in Dallas through the first half of the 20th Century. Working in the vein of American Impressionism, his pictures of longhorn steers roaming the landscape helped to define Texas. Reaugh was a prolific and influential artist who produced over seven thousand works, primarily small plein air sketches of Texas Longhorns in open prairie settings. Reaugh sketched scenes while riding with cattlemen during the height of Texas's historic roundups, and he led annual sketch trips to some of Texas's most spectacular and remote locations. He has been referred to as "The Dean of Texas Painters" and as "The Longhorn Leonardo".

Tickets are $30 (includes wine/beer and a light snack)

NOTE: As an added bonus the Great Room and the rest of the Chandor House will be fully decorated for Christmas at the time of this event

Something I received from a Dan Scott Blog. Thought it was good enough to pass on!!!!

The 1-Page Painting Checklist

42 questions to guide you through the painting process

Preface

A great artist knows the right questions to ask.

This checklist is designed to give you an idea of the things you should be asking yourself throughout the painting process. Keep in mind that this is not an all exhaustive list, nor is it something to strictly run through for every painting.

Feel free to print it out and refer to it next time you are lacking direction.

Planning Questions

- What am I going to paint?
- Am I going to paint from life or a photo?
- Is the photo high-quality?
- Do I need to make changes to the photo?
- Do I have all the necessary art supplies?
- Are there any special supplies I need just for this painting (colors or brushes)?
- What is my big idea?
- What is my focal point and where will I position it?
- Are there any other key points of interest?
- What is my color strategy?
- Do I need to prepare with sketches or color studies?
- What style will I paint in?
- Will perspective be difficult to render?
- Will I need to place a grid on the painting to help with the initial drawing?
- Will I be staining the canvas and if so, in what color?
- What areas are prone to mistakes?
- What is my general strategy?
- Where will I start?
- What is the purpose of this painting (do I want to sell it, enter it in a competition, provide it as a gift, etc)?

Painting Questions

- Are my values correct?
- Are my colors (hue and saturation) correct?
- Is my drawing correct?
- Are my edges correct?
- Are the major shapes where they should be?
- Does anything appear too large or too small?
- Is there a sense of depth (atmospheric perspective)?
- Is there enough variance throughout the painting?
- Does anything feel out of place?

Finishing Questions

- Will my next stroke add to the painting or detract from it?
- Does the painting say what I wanted to say?
- Is the painting finished?
- Am I going to frame the painting?
- Does the painting need to be varnished?
- Where and how will I sign the painting?
- Have I taken a high-quality photo of the painting?
- Have I documented the painting (name, dimensions, date, etc)?
- Is the painting drying in a safe place?
- Will I list the painting for sale?
- Will I gift the painting to friends or family?
- Have I shared my painting on social media, website, newsletter, etc?
- What went well in the painting and what could I improve for next time?
- What will I paint next?

Thanks for reading and I hope you found this useful! If you are unsure what any of these questions mean, I suggest you check out my Painting Academy course.
