Lynne Buchanan is a retired teacher who began her painting career with realistic subjects to paint from her childhood memories of old barns, cacti and old buildings. She gradually transitioned into an abstract style, where her art works still continue images of peaceful memories of New Mexico landscapes.

Lynne explores her abstraction both with multiple materials and techniques to establish a visual conversation with her viewer. Her art often includes painting and collage materials, photography, and graphite textural elements. Come watch and listen to this inventive and respected artist as she demonstrates her vision.

MARCH

Artist of the Month

Debra Strandberg, "Tulips",
3rd Place, Acrylics

Dale Smith, "Steamboat Fall",
2nd Place, Oil

Karen Walkup, "Piano",
1st Place, Watercolor

1st Place was a delicate watercolor by artist Karen Walkup, "Piano". Karen loves musicians and is especially fond of the elegance of the piano. An artist that works in many mediums, Karen is an Art Exploration Coach and hosts team building, art therapy workshops, homeschool lessons, one on one instruction, and art project coaching. You learn more about this diverse artist at <https://karenwalkupcreations.com>. "Piano" and other works by Karen will be on view at the Doss Heritage and Cultural Center during April.

2nd Place went to artist Dale Smith, for a gorgeous oil painting, "Steamboat Fall". Dale is a native of Colorado and the famous Steamboat mountains were a favorite vacation spot. In this landscape, one of the most iconic barns in Steamboat is painted framed by glowing fall foliage, majestic mountains, and lovely cloud-studded sky. Dale's painting will be displayed during April at First Bank Texas in downtown Weatherford.

3rd Place was awarded to Debra Strandberg for her acrylic painting "Tulips". Painted during this past February's cold snap, this still life focused on light and jewel tones and was a look forward to the beauty of spring tulips and the warmth of spring. Debra's painting can be viewed throughout April at the Fort Worth Community Credit Union on South Main Street in Weatherford.

Set up paintings at each meeting by 6 PM to enter in our monthly contest. Winners are displayed at local banks. Get your artwork noticed.

WAA's own Cunning to present watercolor demonstration

FROM STAFF REPORTS

The Weatherford Art Association will host award-winning Weatherford artist Kathy Cunning, who will present a watercolor demonstration.

Even though Kathy's current passion is focused on watercolors of old vintage cars long off the roads, her watercolors sing with gleaming reflections in metal grilles and are saturated with rich rusty metal tones against brilliant skies. Want to learn how to paint those metals and shine up those reflections? Join the WAA for her demonstration on March 27 at Barlow Hall, 125 S. Waco St. in Weatherford from 6 to 7:45 p.m.

Even though Cunning is a retired WISD art teacher, as she puts it, "that teaching part of me has never stopped."

She organizes and coordinates the WAA online student art show, recognizing and promoting art students all over Parker County. She also helps teach a watercolor class for Weatherford seniors at the Senior Center and if that wasn't enough, is the membership chair for Weatherford Art Association.

Kathy Cunning

Focusing on Acrylic Painting with Individuality of Expression!

Each day's assignments will be concerned with exploring ideas and finding ways for shifting out of old, predictable and habitual ways of expression through your art and "perking-up" your approach to each new painting.

There will be opportunities for planning and developing fresh ways of dealing with subject matter and composition with planned exercises. The demos, handouts, and exercises are designed to help develop individual and confident art work, and to, hopefully, inspire your present and future work. A supply list will be provided.
