WAA Demo Series August Demo Sandy Sasser Oils

Sandy started her artistic journey with a major in advertising art from Texas Tech. But like many artists, her creative life wound through a fifty-year career in real estate and mortgage. Now a senior, she's back to art classes and a passion for painting. Her study has been influenced by many artists like Albert Handel, Gary Jenkins and a great mentor, Ruth Francis from Grapevine. Never one afraid to think outside the box, Sandy offers her unique style of painting with acrylic and oil, both together and separately. As she put it, "You have to get out of your head and into the mode to paint." We can't wait to get into Sandy's artistic treasure trove of ideas!

July Artist of the Month

1st Place was garnered by artist Jerry Buckner for his impressive acrylic painting “Elephant.” What makes this even more amazing is that Jerry only began painting seven months ago. When asked about this accomplishment Jerry wanted to thank “his teacher, WAA member, Colleen Erickson and painting partners WAA members Kathy Cunning and Patricia Harder and many others for their help and advice.” We congratulate Jerry on his success. “Elephant” and other art works by Jerry will be on view at the Doss Heritage and Culture Center during August.

2nd Place went to artist Doris Friddle, for her oil painting “Picking Blooms.” Doris has painted this composition three times and said her inspiration was a lesson from acclaimed artist Jerry Yarnell. Her love and skill with floral landscapes is evident in this peaceful scene. Doris’ painting will be displayed during August at First Bank Texas in downtown Weatherford.

3rd Place was awarded to Michael McCarty, for his watercolor painting “Jealousy”. His work was inspired by the style of a Roman carving of a woman’s face and used a new medium for him, dual tip watercolor markers. Michael said, “the greens and blues and slightly melancholy look on the face prompted the title, “Jealousy.” Michael’s work can be viewed throughout August at the Fort Worth Community Credit Union on South Main Street in Weatherford.

Paintings must be set up at each meeting by 6 PM to enter in our monthly contest.

Winners are displayed at local banks. Get your artwork noticed.

One entry per member. Digital compositions using AI Image Generator Software are not allowed.

Members Corner

Jerry Shidal writes: He has found out that Carrol Richardson created a website before he passed away. This website is still active and will probably remain online for the rest of the year. Many of his watercolors and oil paintings can be seen there. His website is: <https://carrolrichardson.com>. Going to this website is a good way to remember this artist, who was a much beloved member of WAA. Many of Carrol's art supplies have been donated to WAA by his estate and will be brought to the monthly meetings for the next several months.

Thanks to Patti Stepp for her demo in July on Palette Knife Painting.

Kathy Cunning has 5 pieces showing in the 2023 Fort Worth Historic Preservation art show and sale this September during Gallery Night at the Woman's Club of Fort Worth. One of her pieces, 18-LK-Liam was selected to be made into notecards and puzzles for the exhibition.

WAA members, Colleen Erickson, Judy Mason, Mary Ann White, Linda Robinson and Kathy Cunning will have a showing at the Old Post Office Museum in Graham during September and October 2023 as members of Women of Worth. The reception for the show is October 29 at 2pm.

Colleen Erickson has illustrated 16 pages and a cover for author Phil Mills' children's book 'Tommy the Tugboat Turtle'. The book has gone to the publisher. Congrats for these illustrations. Children will get to see fine art from Colleen.
