September Artist of the Month

First place was awarded to Weatherford artist Val Vierling for her watercolor painting, “Daffodils in Vase”. Val began this study of reflections on glass in a workshop by well-known watercolorist Soon Warren. It was her goal in this work to master the techniques of contrast and reflection using the watercolor medium. We think she succeeded! Come see this work and others by Val featured at The Doss Heritage and Culture Center through October.

Second place went to Cindi Neverdousky for her delightful oil on linen painting "Punkins". Cindi tells us the name is based on the excited reaction of her twin grandchildren, “Punkins!” to the richly painted pumpkin. Cindi’s painting will be on display during October at First Bank Texas in downtown Weatherford.

Third place honors were awarded to Marti Bailey for her oil painting, “Georgia”. The Georgia of the title is a horse in a brisk winter scene. Horse lovers will appreciate Georgia’s alert expression and the details in her coat and the surrounding snowy landscape. You can view her painting during October at the Fort Worth Community Credit Union on South Main Street in Weatherford.

Paintings must be set up at each meeting by 6 PM to enter in our monthly contest.

Winners are displayed at local banks. Get your artwork noticed.

One entry per member. Digital compositions using AI Image Generator Software are not allowed.

WAA is moving locations in January.

Watch your email for more information to come!!!!

The 2024 Members Show will be in March. Get your art ready! It's never too early to create.

Sandra Lee has been busy at the 2nd annual FW Fall Art Fair to benefit the non-profit Villa Nova Transitional Living. Their purpose is to help women who need a safe atmosphere to live when leaving abusive relationships.

Michelle Crider is taking a sculpture class at the Woman's Club of Fort Worth with local artist Doug Clark.

Debra Strandberg was prompted by George's All Day Stew for this watercolor that even has an awesome aroma.

Carolyn Young had a one-woman show at the Red Earth Studio in Oklahoma City. She is also represented in the Tri-County Co-Op Magazine.

Linda Hidalgo is working on a series called 'Well, Heck Yeah!' She ask herself if she can pour paint flamingos, lizards or pumpkins!!! Cannot wait for her demonstration this month!

We are thrilled to invite you to come to Pioneer Cabin Park on October 7th from 10am-4pm for our annual Pioneer Heritage Festival. This year promises to be an unforgettable experience, featuring dressed interpreters, historic demonstrations, live music, and hands on history stations.

This festival offers a unique glimpse at Pioneer life in Parker County and brings that history to life! Come and walk the Park to see all four of our historic log cabins which have been brought back to life! We are excited to showcase these cabin's rich histories and provide an immersive experience for each of our visitors.

We would be honored to have you join us for this special occasion! It will be a great opportunity to see the Park, connect with the community, interact with guests, and see our new exhibits. We will have new exhibits opening including Spirit of the West Art Show presented by Weatherford Art Association, Thankful

Generations presented by Maureen Kenney and Dig Deeper Archeology in Parker County where we take a closer look at found objects from Parker County.

We hope to see you at Pioneer Cabin Park on October 7th and look forward to sharing this incredible experience with you.

Weatherford Art Association is a proud supporter of the Doss Cultural & Heritage Center.

I decided that if I could paint that flower in a huge scale, you could not ignore its beauty.
