November Demo David Tripp Watercolor

David Tripp currently owns The Gallery at Redlands in Palestine, Texas. He also displays in his studio in Arlington. Retiring after three decades in the classroom, David currently enjoys creating watercolors featuring small-town American sights focusing from our sights but not our memories. A native Missourian, David grew up in St. Louis and studied art in rural northeast Missouri. He earned his bachelor's degree from Northeast Missouri State University now Truman State University. November Artist of the Month

First place was awarded to artist Patricia Harder for her watercolor painting, “Coastline”. Inspired by her daughter’s vacation adventures, Patricia focuses on the difficult task of capturing the motion of waves against a rocky coastline, framed by a rose-tinted sky. Lovely and peaceful, this watercolor and others by Patricia will be featured at The Doss Heritage and Culture Center through November.

Second place went to Randy Loyer. Randy’s oil painting “Fox” was inspired by a neighbor’s request and was a chance for him to focus on the challenge of painting animals and the texture of their fur. Randy commented, “I really appreciate the advice and pointers shared by other WAA artists.” Weatherford Art Association is delighted at Randy’s success and invites you to view his painting on display during November at First Bank Texas in downtown Weatherford.

Third place honors were awarded to Linda Hidalgo for her oil painting, “Flowers”. Linda produced this painting with a technique she has mastered called acrylic pouring. Linda commented, “I really like how this painting oriented itself vertically and the balance of colors is unique. I hope to always create unique paintings.” You can view her work during November at the Fort Worth Community Credit Union on South Main Street in Weatherford.

Paintings must be set up at each meeting by 6 PM to enter in our monthly contest.

Winners are displayed at local banks. Get your artwork noticed.

One entry per member. Digital compositions using AI Image Generator Software are not allowed.

WAA is moving locations in January.

Beginning with the January 22nd meeting, we will meet at the Senior Center in Weatherford.

Same time just different place. 1225 Holland Lake Drive.

Cheryl Moore won an honorable mention at the Nocona 'Art of the Song' show. It is a pastel painting of her granddaughter practicing the cello. Her watercolor of kids on the fence was purchased by the grandparents of the children.

Sandra Lee will be selling her art on Nov. 12 at Billy Bob's in the Stockyards. She says it's a nice venue for holiday gifts under $100
