The Weatherford Art Association welcomes Weatherford, Texas artist Diane Bolinger for a demonstration at its June ~24th meeting from 6-7:45 p.m., at the Senior Center, 1225 Holland Lake Drive in Weatherford.

Diane Bolinger is a native Texan and graduate of Weatherford High School. She received her BFA in Painting at The University of Texas in San Antonio. After college she moved to New York and worked for ten years with the DC9 Painter's Union restoring historical landmarks such as the Chrysler Building and Radio City Music Hall before returning to Parker County, Texas. Her work has been included in various group and solo exhibitions from New York to Texas. She has been spotlighted in Parker County Today magazine and has won numerous competitions including The State Fair of Texas, The Spirit of the West, Parker County Peach Festival, and the Winsor-Newton Painting Award. She is currently the lead art teacher at Weatherford High School. Her work includes vibrant landscapes with bright colors and ceramic mobiles and flowers inspired from her childhood growing up in rural Parker County.

For the demonstration Diane will teach her technique of painting that is heavily influenced by the Fauvism movement with bold colors and layering.

May Demo Reflections

May Demo - Amy Glasgow - Monotype & Linocuts

Amy Glasgow presented a short slideshow of her process for creating her art: linocuts and monotype. After her video presentation she asked attending members to gather around her worktable while she walked us through her process. This type of printmaking is centuries old, time consuming, but with the benefit of allowing the artist to reproduce her art over and over.

In Memoriam

Linda Louise Skov

August 1, 1945 — June 5, 2024

Linda Louise (Ramsey) Skov was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on August 1, 1945, and passed peacefully on to her heavenly home surrounded by her immediate family on June 5, 2024, in Weatherford, Texas.

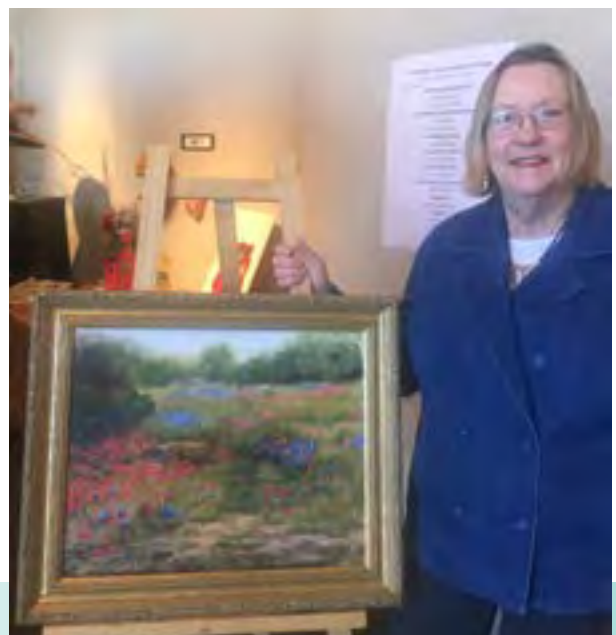

Linda was preceded in death by her parents, Frederick Allison Ramsey and Sarah Jane (Graham) Ramsey of Moon Township, Pennsylvania and also by her brother, Frederick James Ramsey and his wife, Helen (Hildebrand) Ramsey of Rochester, New York.

54 years ago, Linda married the love of her life, Erik, and together they raised their daughters, Amanda Jane Skov of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Anna Louise Nave of Annetta North, Texas. Linda is survived by: Erik; Amanda, her husband, Joseph Charles Ott and their sons, William Frederick Ott and Benjamin Joseph Ott; Anna, her husband, Shannon Lee Nave and their sons, Jackson Graham Nave and Peter Erik Nave; and several nieces, nephews, and their families. She is also survived by her brother-in-law, Christian and her sister-in-law, AnnaLis of Assens, Denmark.

Linda graduated from Moon High School and received her undergraduate degree in Special Education from Clarion University in Clarion, Pennsylvania. Later in life, after juggling exam dates and cancer treatments, she received her Master's Degree from University of Houston. Linda taught Special Ed for 30 years in several school districts in Pennsylvania and Texas. Her professional success was rooted in her enduring love for her students, and many were the mornings when she rose early to pack lunches for her daughters, herself, and for those students who otherwise would have gone without.

Linda was a member of New Hope Presbyterian Church in Katy, Texas for many years and served there as an ordained elder. She was a member of Grace First Presbyterian Church in Weatherford, Texas and attended, for many summers, Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church in Sigel, Pennsylvania near her beloved summer home on the Clarion River in Belltown, Pennsylvania. Linda was a long-term member of Weatherford Art Association; she was an accomplished artist and exhibited her art at "The Firehouse," at several businesses in town, and had her own exhibit at the Doss Center. In addition to her service to her students, Linda also supported her community by serving, over many years, fellow cancer patients as a counselor for the cancer support group "Cancare" in Houston. She was generous and enthusiastically supported "Manna" and her own private charity, "Palo Pinto Schools Christmas Fund."

In lieu of flowers, Linda would have encouraged all her friends to contribute to Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church, Sigel, PA 15860 and/or Grace First Presbyterian Church in Weatherford, Texas.

Something New on the Horizon!

Starting with the July monthly meeting we will be adding a new feature - an opportunity to showcase your type of art. In addition to our monthly Artist of the Month contest, we are making available a challenge to display your current work. You can choose something you are already working on or I will email a picture, as well as include the picture in the newsletter, that you can translate in whatever medium you prefer.

The July example challenge is included here. Bring your work in progress to the monthly meeting and place it on the table with a sign that says, "Exhibition Only". You can take the opportunity to discuss your work and how you accomplished it or ask questions or recommendations of other artists at the meeting.

To save the picture to your computer, first put your Adobe Acrobat in "Edit" mode, then click on the picture. You should see a box around the picture. Lastly, right click your mouse and save the image where you choose on your computer. Then you can open with photo editing software if you wish.

You may also bring any other pieces that you are working on to exhibit and review with your fellow artists if you prefer not to accept the monthly challenge.

If you have any questions or suggestions, feel free to reach out to me at val.wfdart@gmail.com.

Monthly Challenge

June Artists of the Month

Debra Strandberg, Cher Crosby and Amy Smith

The Weatherford Art Association is pleased to announce the winners of Artist of the Month for June. Each month, WAA members can compete for first, second, and third place ribbons and the opportunity to showcase their artwork at local Weatherford banks and The Doss Heritage and Culture Center.

In June all Artist of the Month winners will be eligible to compete for the Artist of the Year award. Images of the previous winners art will be voted on by online proxy for the award.

First place was awarded to artist Amy Smith with her acrylic painting “Grandma’s Crystal”. A painting of her late Grandma Betty’s crystal bowl. This was Amy’s first time attempting to paint a glass subject and it turned out beautifully. This and other artworks by Amy will be featured at The Doss Heritage and Culture Center throughout June.

Second place went to Cher Crosby with her piece “#316”. A beautiful pastel rendition of a photo of one of her favorite calves taken years earlier on their ranch in Cody, Wyoming. Weatherford Art Association invites you to view this work, on display in June at First Bank Texas in downtown Weatherford.

Third place honors were awarded to Debra Strandberg with her watercolor painting “Carolyn”. This painting was inspired by a photo of her friend Carolyn in which she felt it really captured the joy and spark of her spirit. View Debra’s painting in June, at the Fort Worth Community Credit Union on South Main Street in Weatherford.

"Peaches" by Cindi Neverdousky

It's such fun to be a part of the Art Department - The Woman's Club of Fort Worth and I was blown away to be awarded Honorable Mention for my Mixed Media entry, Abby Lane, in oil & cold wax yesterday. Wish my photo skills were better, but I'm still learning to photograph my paintings so bear with me. It was a beautiful show and I'm humbled to be among the winners.

June 17th, 2024 - Linda Hidalgo
Watercolor Demo

Linda Hidalgo lives in Azle, Texas is married, semi-retired and loves to keep learning. What she enjoys learning about is how to improve skills.

Her career as a massage therapist has led her to many opportunities to improve her abilities, and now she continues to learn new techniques regarding art. Learning is fundamental and feels this knowledge is critical to success.

Always wanting to draw and paint was there, however, time, money and life gave her some different directions. Painting at the kitchen table, on the living room floor or just about any flat surface when time allowed. Books from the library, magazines, and other art books were a starting point. Trying with acrylics because they were easy cleanup, fast and inexpensive. Later, life slowed down, and money was available.

Important workshops attended include: Laurin McCracken (watercolor), Carrie Waller (watercolor), Tim Oliver, Randy Meador, and James Sparlock, along with several other in oils and acrylics.

Awards: Best of Show in Lake Granbury, First Place Watercolor in Graham Art Show, the Old Post Office Museum, Artist of the Year for SWA, as well as artist of the month Weatherford Art Association Honorable Mention in Arlington Art Association

OUR JUDGE FOR THE SHOW

Martha Spurlock

Martha paints many subjects ranging from Americana and the cowboys to the American West. Working in a realistic style, each of Martha's paintings reflect the countless hours of research and planning that is required before she begins to paint. Her in-depth research into authentic situations is fueled by numerous cowboy gatherings and modeling sessions. Her painting of real subjects recreates American history and heritage.

"I have a real appreciation for the old west and like to think I capture the western lifestyle in each painting I create".

All of Martha's paintings tell you a story, a recreation of history.
