SEPTEMBER DEMO AT MONTHLY MEETING - SEPTEMBER 23, 2024

Carol Acedo

Sept 23
Acrylics on Raw Canvas

6pm
1225
Holland
Lake Drive

Carol Acedo was born in Louisville, Kentucky and moved to North Carolina as a teenager, where she later attended NC State University and earned a degree in Industrial Design. She has now settled in Ft. Worth, Texas, and specializes in designing lighting fixtures for various manufacturers. Her creative ambitions carry over to her love of art that she has expressed throughout her career.

Carol is best known for her unique method of painting in which she applies acrylic paint onto raw canvas that is prepared with a clear gesso. This method produces a soft, light absorbing, matte surface not common to most paintings.

Most of her works are monochromatic while others have color layered on top of a monochromatic underpainting. Animals, architecture, and musicians are common subjects in her artwork. Many of her portraits of Jazz/Blues Musicians and other subjects can be found in coffee shops and private collections all around the country. Her Western-themed artwork can be found in both galleries and exhibitions in Texas and Oklahoma.

UPCOMING DEMO: OCTOBER 2024

Diane Brown

Diane Brown is an artist/illustrator living in Aledo, Texas. Mrs. Brown has always had a driving interest in art in general and drawing and watercolor painting specifically. She attended Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kansas, with an art scholarship and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Elementary Education and a minor in Art. She has illustrated five children's books and is working currently on several stories of her own. The books she has illustrated are published by 4RV Publishing.

ILLUSTRATING CHILDREN'S BOOKS

In her October presentation, Brown will discuss her experiences as an illustrator of children's books - from finding illustration work to the process employed to create a children's book from start to finish. While one person's experience will not fully describe the children's book industry, it can help another gain insight into how to enter this field and find success.

ARTIST OF THE MONTH SEPTEMBER 2024

The Weatherford Art Association is pleased to announce the winners of Artist of the Month for September. Each month, WAA members can compete for first, second, and third place ribbons and the opportunity to showcase their artwork at local Weatherford banks and The Doss Heritage and Culture Center.

Artist of the Month first place winners are eligible to compete for the Artist of the Year award which is voted on by online proxy every June.

FIRST PLACE

First place was awarded to artist Dale Smith with her oil painting "Adonis." Dale was inspired when she saw the reference photo and knew she had to paint the stunning subject, paying close attention to the minute details of his clothing. This and other artworks by Dale will be featured at The Doss Heritage and Culture Center throughout September.

SECOND PLACE

Second place went to Marla Grey Sheft with her watercolor painting "Calming Hues." This piece was inspired by the desire to create a piece that projected a calm feeling on the viewer. Marla always has a hidden bug or animal in all of her pieces, and you can see this one on the handle of the vase. Weatherford Art Association invites you to view this work, on display in September at First Bank Texas in downtown Weatherford.

THIRD PLACE

Third place honors were awarded to Kimberly Bengel with her photography piece "Gage Fountain." Kimberly photographed this fountain at the Gage Hotel then used a layering technique to give it a dreamy watercolor type appearance. View Kimberly's art in September, at the Fort Worth Community Credit Union on South Main Street in Weatherford.

IN MEMORIAM

Jim Stewart was a retired architectural designer in the commercial real estate development business who has had a passion for painting since the late 1950's. A native born Texan from Lubbock James graduated from McMurray University as an art major and became a muralist, 'plein air' and studio painter working in all mediums. His mural 'Texas Under Six Flags' still remains in the J. Rollins Library at McMurry University.

After retirement, Jim kept his interest in painting by producing commission works and golf related illustrations which took a back seat to his many sports interests. In addition to being a competitive golfer he reignited his passion for painting in 2010 and received Best of Show in his first Juried event. He had been painting professionally since 2011 and had been accepted and often awarded in 57 juried invitational, regional, national and international exhibitions. For the last 5 years his works have been on display and sold at the five-star restaurant: Eighteen Nighty in Granbury. He was a traditional "Texas Western Landscape Painter" who is rigid in conforming to the 'fundamental principles of art' and believes the success of a painting is found in its composition, accuracy, dramatic impact, collective presentation and most importantly public appreciation. Jim is survived by his wife, Cheryl, his daughters, Amanda Henry of Lewisville, Texas, Tina Newton of Trophy Club, Texas and his son, Shea Stewart of Argyle, Texas. Others include grandchildren; Brandon Estes-Stewart, Alex Munoz, Camryn Stewart, Zara Newton and Alexis Newton. Two Great Grandchildren; Dahlia and Hallow Munoz. Sister and Brother-in-law, Dana and Steve Young, and nephew, Zach Moseley and niece, Madison Young.

Painting on Silk Scarves

Betsy Allaire

Silk Scarf Workshop
Artist and Teacher

Betsy learned to love working with silk and silk dyes about 6 years ago. "I was at a church camp retreat with my kids and grandkids. I went to this little elective class that was offered on making silk scarves. It took me about 3 minutes, and I was hooked! Even though it is not an easy task! You must source your silks and supplies, there are racks that must be assembled, silk must be treated, (at every step,) and then a good design-and colors chosen. Then you start on a one-of-a-kind creation!"

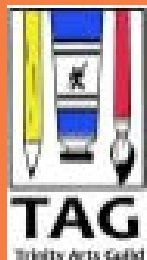

In my workshop I have done all of that prep for you! I will have white scarves, dyes and all the tools. You can copy from my sources or bring your own design.

We will make 2 scarves in our class, using 2 different techniques. You can wear them or put them proudly on display! We will have fun and relax and enjoy this ancient art!

Betsy's silk has been featured on a billboard in North Richland Hills, and her scarves were part of a 2 woman show earlier this year called "Betsy x 2". She has been a proud Tag member since 2018 and participated in numerous shows. She has sold her silks locally and internationally.

Robyn Jorde- November 4, 2024 - 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Painting on a Gessoed Surface

Robyn will be demonstrating her methods for using watercolor on paper prepared with acrylic gesso. Painting this way gives the artist lots of splashy splashy play time because it is so easy to remove paint from the gessoed surface later. This gives plenty of time to develop the image without worrying about the painting drying too quickly.

A former oil painter, Robyn became interested in the transparent layering possible with watercolor, a medium which often rewards artists who carefully plan those layers. During the learning process, she discovered that what she liked even more was the fluid blending and all the happy accidents that occur. This led her to her current way of working, which now also often incorporates other watermedia such as gouache, ink, and acrylic.

Robyn's work has been accepted in many juried shows and she has won several awards, including the "Best of Show" in the 2018 Southwestern Watercolor Society show. One of her paintings was selected for installation as a mural in downtown Dallas, where it was on display for the year 2020. More of her work can be seen at <https://www.robynjorde.com>.
