February Demo

Jerry Shidal will be demonstrating how to craft 3-D objects as art pieces. In WAA's October 2024 Artist of the Month competition second place went to Jerry Shidal with his 3D sculpture called "The Casa". Jerry became fascinated with modeling a few years ago, when he realized that it was possible to create 3-D models with commonly available household items like cardboard, foam, popsicle sticks, paint, and glue. Jerry had no previous experience with model-making but found how-to videos on the internet that made the process look interesting and easy. Last year one of his models of the Central Christian Church in Weatherford sold for $700 at the Christmas fund-raising auction. In this piece Jerry particularly enjoys the adobe-looking walls and the Spanish tile roof. He hopes it might inspire other model makers to give it a try.

Letter from the Prez

Members of WAA,

I am excited to share that the board is working on a potential significant change for WAA. As we approach our 60th anniversary this will hopefully help to insure the future longevity of WAA. As a group of volunteers, I think this is a pretty remarkable feat.

We are nothing without each other.

ARTIST Of the MONTH February

Ann Feriend, Randy Loyer, & Joyce Pinkerton

The Weatherford Art Association is pleased to announce the winners of Artist of the Month for February. Each month, WAA members can compete for first, second, and third place ribbons and the opportunity to showcase their artwork at local Weatherford banks and The Doss Heritage and Culture Center.

Artist of the Month first place winners are eligible to compete for the Artist of the Year award which is voted on by online proxy every June.

First place was awarded to artist Joyce Pinkerton, a new member of WAA with her beautiful watercolor “Storm Coming” inspired by a trip to Davis Mountain State Park where she got to enjoy the view of the storm rolling in. This and other artwork by Joyce will be featured at The Doss Heritage and Culture Center throughout February.

Second place went to Randy Loyer with his oil painting “NoNo”. Randy was experimenting with complimentary colors when he created this fun piece. Randy’s piece will be on display at the First Bank Texas in Weatherford, through the month of February.

Third place honors were awarded to Anne Feriend with her watercolor “Golden Rule Day”. This piece was inspired by a photograph of the Blackwater School in New Zealand founded in 1913. View Anne’s art in February, at the Fort Worth Community Credit Union on South Main Street in Weatherford.

3-DAY WORKSHOP WITH OIL ARTIST CLINTON BROYLES

April 21, 22, 23
9:00 AM - 4:00 PM
The Woman's Club
of Fort Worth
Art Studio

Workshops are open to the public.
$250 Art Department Members
$300 Non-Members

If you missed his demonstration last fall, here is your chance for an incredible experience in oils! Class focus will be on deepening our understanding of landscapes, composition and perspective.

About the Artist:

Born in McAllen, Texas, in 1985, Clinton Broyles spent his formative years in the Dallas area, where he developed an interest in art at an early age. Broyles went on to study at Texas A&M University, earning a bachelor's degree in architecture in 2007. The architectural curriculum introduced him to concepts of design, structure, and space, which became recurring elements in his artwork.

Broyles' work reflects his interest in history, focusing on scenes from everyday life in bygone eras. His paintings are characterized by detailed compositions that highlight the aesthetics of the past while maintaining a contemporary and optimistic perspective. He is currently represented by the Southwest Gallery in Dallas and New Masters Gallery in Carmel.

Weatherford Art Association, as a non-profit organization, runs on a tight annual budget. In order to provide awards for our shows we rely on donations to supplement the entry fees and to provide consistent quality awards. You can donate cash through our website or you can bring supplies (preferably new) to use as awards, to our monthly meetings. The next show is the PCSAS (Parker County Student Art Show) and after that is the Members Show. Supplies are especially appropriate for the Student Show. Click here to donate online:
